

Sensitive Issues – Parent/Guardian Permission Request

Girl Scouts welcomes and serves girls and families from a wide spectrum of cultures. In order to be contemporary and responsive to girls’ needs, some activities focus on subjects that may be considered sensitive in nature. There is no definitive list of sensitive issues but possible examples include: substance abuse, child abuse, puberty/human sexuality, violence, youth suicide, religion, etc.

Before covering any sensitive issue, either within or beyond the scope of the Girl Scout program resources, the troop adult volunteer must obtain council approval. Parents/Guardians should also be aware of the content of program before it is presented to the girls. Therefore, written approval by a parent/guardian is required for each girl to participate in any sensitive issue program or activity.
