

Service Unit Outdoor Instructor

Summary

Promote and organize outdoor activities in your service unit! You will maintain your outdoor safety certifications through Girl Scouts of Southwest Indiana (GSSI) and facilitate local workshops and events to help girls strengthen their outdoor skills and earn outdoor badges. The Service Unit Outdoor Instructor also networks with other outdoor-certified volunteers and ensures all troops in their service unit are participating in quality outdoor programming.

Appointment and Support

Service Unit Outdoor Instructors are appointed by GSSI staff and are asked to fulfill a one-year renewable term. You will work directly with the Service Unit Day Camp Director, GSSI Girl Experience Specialist, and the GSSI Volunteer Support & Training Manager to ensure safe, quality outdoor programming throughout the year. Additional staff members are also available for direct assistance as needed.

Benefits

Knowledge of Girl Scout badges and journeys. Utilize your outdoor skillset while learning best practices in adult training, event planning, and evaluation. Receive safety certifications and volunteer service hours while building relationships with other Girl Scout volunteers.
